Says

The user wants to turn a simple idea into a complete comic without manually writing and illustrating every panel.

Thinks

The comic should match the chosen character, setting, tone, and art style and should remain coherent from panel to panel.

Does

Enters the story prompt and preferences, submits the form, reviews the generated comic, and downloads the final PDF.

Feels

Creative and interested in seeing an idea transformed into a visual story, while wanting the process to remain simple.

Pain Points

Manual story planning, dialogue writing, illustration creation, and comic layout can require significant time and skill.

Gains

A personalized comic can be generated quickly with a clean web workflow and saved as a PDF.
